5. Want to keep creating lovely memories.

Flirty messages

HERE ARE A FEW TO GET YOU STARTED:

- It's hard to imagine my life without you. The memories we've created, the joy we've shared, and the times we've spent growing closer are some of the happiest moments of my life.
- The truth is, my life is so much better because you're in it. You help make me a better woman and I love the person I've grown into since you came into my life.
- I was thinking about the vows we took on our wedding day. And I'm not sure I've always done the best job of upholding them, but I'm beyond grateful that we get to spend the rest of our lives together trying. I want to be the best wife I can be to you – in good times and in bad, in sickness and in health, till death do us part.
- Let's do this forever. Let's always choose each other first, love each other deeply, and tackle life hand in hand.
- Even though we've gone through some rough patch, I am grateful for the gift of you because you strive to be better. I honour you today and always.
- So many choices to make tonight! Should we choose the bed, the wall, the kitchen, the patio, the car, the pool etc.
- The sounds we make together when our clothes are gone... Turns! Me! On!
- I have been thinking about you a lot today and I wondered if we could discuss these thoughts in bed! Naked! Tonight!
- I can't concentrate on work today...I keep thinking about you, my tongue on your D! Your tongue on my cli*! Your finger in my Py.
- I want you to pick me up from the door, bend me over on the couch, and take me right there! I promise to be submissive.
